An NMJC education? Let McCleery tell you why...
helping people has been one of his priorities and will continue to do so for many years to come.

"The people of Hobbs are so good, it is people that you can’t help but help when they need it," Ramirez said.

Ramirez has been an active member of St. Helena and Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic parishes for more than 32 years and a brother of the Knights of Columbus for more than 18 years. He has also been a member of the Pat Coso Golf Club for over 25 years and a member of the Eagles Lodge for over 30 years.

Hermilo Ojeda, the master of ceremonies and a member of the Cinco de Mayo celebration is important in keeping the Mexican culture alive in today’s society.

"To keep our culture alive, especially for the new generation," he said. "That is why I always try to bring a little bit of culture."
