LRMC hires two new directors

FOR THE NEWS-SUN

Lea Regional Medical Center has hired Laura Reedy and Lisa Waite as department directors.

Reedy joined Lea Regional in March as the director of the Women’s Services unit. She comes from Planned Parenthood of Texas, where she served as an advanced practice nurse.

She has more than 20 years of clinical experience and has served in various leadership roles. Reedy received a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing from the University of Texas at Arlington and a Master of Science degree in nursing from the University of Miami.

Waite joined Lea Regional in April as the director of the Transitional Care Unit. She comes from St. Mary’s Transitional Care Unit. She served in various leadership roles. Reedy received a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing from Frontier Nursing University.

“Reedy is very pleased to have Laura and Lisa join our staff at Lea Regional,” said Timothy Thackston, chief executive officer at Lea Regional Medical Center. “Our patients will benefit from the knowledge and experience they have by being on our team.”
